Merchants Give Big Values For $ DOLLAR DAYS $

By Sally

We feel just like we do when trying to watch a three-ring circus! In fact, we've not been as excited as this in all our life. But then we suppose that's no reason to ramble on incoherently. What we're really trying to say is that "Dollar Days", today and tomorrow, will go down in Daly City shopping history as one of the biggest money-saving events ever offered here.

Grocery Order, Your Picture, Free

Saturday the Shopping News is planning a real promotion tie-in event to climax Daly City's gala dollar days!

The Shopping News will give away more than ten dollars in merchandise orders on dollar day

More than twenty-five local leading business men are cooperating with the Shopping News to make Daly City Dollar Days a real merchandising event. For weeks they've been planning this great sale... and we must say we've yet to see anything like the bargains offered for this weekend. Wild horses couldn't drag us away today or tomorrow. We'll be shopping merrily from dawn to dark.

And here's a tip to all our friends—get started on your shopping tour early this morning. Once word gets out on some of the dollar day items the rush will be terrific. Use the shopper for a handy guide to the biggest bargains Daly City ever saw.

The variety of things you can buy for a dollar is really amazing... an electric razor; a five-course dinner; ladies' or children's half soles, heels, pair of laces and a shine (all for $1); suit and sweater cleaned and pressed; three phonograph records, any of the latest hits; chenille bathroom rug and toilet cover set; $2 Afga camera, 98c; 9 pounds baby spring lamb liver; 3 broilers; a large lug Bartlett pears; a ladies' rip-proof slip; a soapless oil shampoo and fingerwave; 21 cans of vegetables; an Italian cake; a pair of men's $1.98 slippers.

If that doesn't make a dollar cover a lot of territory, we don't know what does!

Other specials over the dollar days include such items as a hamburger (or 13-inch bow-wow) and a dish of ice-cream, both for 15c; a sensational sale on Firestone tires, with unusual reductions; 2 pounds Schilling coffee, 50c; Shirley Temple in "Susannah of the Mounties" Thursday, Friday, Saturday; watermelon, 1c a pound; cross rib roast, quality steer beef, 25c pound; creamery values in rich, wholesome milk, delivered at your door; Hormel bacon, 1/2 pound, 13c; pure cane sugar, 10 pounds, 49c; water faucets and plumbing fixtures at rock-bottom prices; and large veal chops, 20c advertisers. Lucky winners will be selected at random Saturday from housewives (and men too) who will crowd Daly City streets to take advantage of dollar day bargains.

Merchandise orders will be handed to winners by dollar day advertisers themselves, and a Shopping News photographer will be on the scene to take a picture of the merchant and winner. Pictures will be published in the Shopping News next week.

Plan Gala Week
On Treasure Isle

Sparkling new, free entertainment programs and the celebration of a score of special days and programs is expected to make the week of August 26 to September 1 one of the most successful weeks on Treasure Island, according to officials.

Eddy Duchin and his band, plus an entirely new bill of entertainment, will present free shows in the Temple Compound at 2:45 and 5 p. m. on Saturday and Sunday and at 2:00 and 5:00 on Monday, playing for the free dances in the Treasure Island music hall starting at 8:30 p. m. on all three days.

Following Eddy Duchin, a n d starting next Tuesday, August 29, Phil Harris and his famous band, well-known to San Franciscans through personal appearances and his work on the popular Jack Benny program, will present free daily performances with his company of top-line entertainers in the Temple Compound for the balance of the week. His band will supply the music for the nightly free dances in the Treasure Island music hall.

Easy Needlefest.

Cook half a pound of noodles in salted water and drain. While they are cooking, heat a can of cream of mushroom soup, adding a cup of milk to it if it is the condensed kind. Add also a tablespoon of chopped onion, ¼ teaspoon salt and two hard-cooked eggs, sliced. Add the drained noodles, mix well and put into a buttered casserole. Cover the top with buttered crumbs and bake 35 minutes in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees).

This year's crop of peaches, pears, plums, and berries is waiting to be transformed into rows of sparkling jellies, spicy relishes and rich marmalades. In this column next week Eleanor Howe will give you some of her favorite recipes for easy-to-make and delicious-to-eat jams, marmalades and pickles.

Easy Entertaining.

In this new cook book by Eleanor Howe you'll find over 125 practical suggestions and recipes for parties of every description. Birthday parties, picnics, buffet suppers, and parties for the bride—for all these and many more social occasions, you'll find unusual menus, new recipes and practical hints for the hostess. Send 10 cents in coin to "Easy Entertaining," Eleanor Howe, 919 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Ill., and get your copy of "Easy Entertaining" now.

TIPS FOR HOUSEWIFE

Wet knife with cold water when cutting a meringue pie.

Oil of lavender sprinkled sparingly through a bookcase will save a library from mold.

Use the blower attachment of your vacuum cleaner to remove dust from your radiators.

Syrup left over from spiced fruits makes an excellent basting for ham, pork and veal roasts.

A good floor wax rubbed on window sills after they have been refinished will keep them in perfect condition.

'Make Mine a Ham on Rye'

Sandwiches in all their delightful variety are the mainstay of summer menus. Grilled sandwiches make a "one-dish meal" for lunch or supper; substantial sandwiches with hearty fillings make a satisfying picnic lunch; and dainty "tea sandwiches," served with a frosted beverage, are perfect for a party.

But it keeps a woman's wits working overtime to provide sandwiches that are new and different! And new and different they must be, if they're to retain the appetite appeal which makes them popular.

Success With Sandwiches.

1. Use bread that is a day old.
2. Cream the butter—don't melt it.
3. Whatever the filling, use plenty of it.

4. Keep sandwiches moist for several hours by wrapping them in wax paper or in a clean cloth wrung out of hot water.

5. Remember to use a variety in breads, as well as fillings—whole wheat, rye, graham, oatmeal, brown bread, raisin bread, nut bread and orange bread all make delicious sandwiches.

6. Use left-over sandwiches for next day's lunch or supper by "french toasting" them—merely dip the sandwiches in beaten egg, pan fry them on both sides, and serve hot with a garnish of watercress or sweet pickle.

Raisin Orange Filling for Sandwiches.

(Makes 8-10 sandwiches)
2 cups raisins
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
4 tablespoons orange juice
Grind the raisins, add orange rind and juice and blend well. Use with white or whole wheat bread.

Banana Butter Filling.
(Makes 1 cup filling)
1 ripe banana
1/2 cup peanut butter
1/4 cup dates (cut fine)
1 teaspoon lemon juice
Mash banana with a fork and thoroughly blend in remaining ingredients.

Mayonnaise Sandwich Loaf.
1 loaf bread
1 head lettuce
1/2 cup boned chicken
1/2 cup mayonnaise dressing
3 slices broiled bacon
1 medium sized tomato
1 package cream cheese
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
Ripe olives
Celery

Remove crusts and slice a medium sized loaf of bread lengthwise in three long slices. Place crisp lettuce leaves on the slice and add a layer of boned chicken. Spread a second slice of bread with mayonnaise and place dressing side down, on the chicken. Add crisp broiled bacon and thin sliced tomatoes as the sandwich filling on this second layer. Spread tomatoes with mayonnaise dressing and top with third long slice of bread. Mix 3 to 4 packages softened cream cheese with one tablespoon prepared mustard and frost the loaf. Garnish with ripe olives and parsley. Slice as for any ordinary loaf of bread. Serve on individual plates.

Hot Peanut Butter Sandwiches.
Toast 5 slices of bread on one side only. Then spread untoasted side with 1/2 cup peanut butter, and then with 1/4 cup chili sauce. Top with slices of bacon and broil slowly until bacon is slightly browned and

Let's Have a Picnic!

When skies are blue and clouds are few and the weather's warm, a picnic basket is the passport to fun. It may be a spur-of-the-moment picnic with a simple lunch prepared from supplies on hand in pantry and refrigerator; or it might be a steak fry or barbecue with the food cooked on the picnic grounds; but it's more likely to be an old-fashioned "family style" picnic for a half-dozen to a hundred hungry guests with plenty of good-tasting food of delicious variety.

Whether your picnic is planned for a family, a Sunday school class, or a lodge, you'll find these foods prime favorites with the guests. Recipes are given here in quantities to serve a family; for a larger number the difference is a simple process of multiplication.

Cream Salad Dressing.
1 teaspoon mustard
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons flour
1½ teaspoons sugar
Dash cayenne pepper
1 teaspoon butter
1 egg yolk
¼ cup vinegar
¾ cup heavy cream
Mix all dry ingredients together thoroughly. Add butter, egg yolk and vinegar. Place in double boiler and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Cool, fold in cream (stiffly beaten) and serve with cabbage salad.

Baked Beans
(Serves 6)
1 pound navy beans
¾ pound pork (from the shoulder)
3 cups water
¼ cup brown sugar
6 tablespoons molasses
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon dry mustard
Soak the navy beans over night in water to cover. In the morning cut the meat into ½-inch pieces and brown well. Add the 3 cups water, and cook slowly for about ½ hour. Add beans and continue cooking for 3 hours, or until both meat and beans are tender. Add remaining ingredients. Place in a baking dish, and bake in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees) for about 1½ hours. If necessary, add more water to the beans while cooking.

Camp Coffee.
Early in the day measure the coffee into a sugar bag, allowing 1 tablespoon per cup. Place this in the coffeepot with a little cold water and let it stand all day. Then when nearly time to serve, pour boiling water, which has been previously measured, into the pot. Boil 5 minutes, remove the bag, and your coffee is ready to serve. It will not harm it to let it stand for a while. You will find that this unusual way of making coffee will give you a most delightful, full-flavored beverage, and at the same time saves considerable measuring and pot-watching when you want to be enjoying your picnic, too!

Fresh Peach Ice Cream.
1½ cups granulated sugar
1 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 egg (slightly beaten)
2 cups milk (scalded)
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
2 cups coffee cream
¾ cups crushed peaches
½ cup confectioners' sugar
Mix sugar, flour and salt thoroughly. Add the beaten egg and blend. Add the scalded milk and cook as a custard in a double boiler until the mixture will coat the spoon. Add vanilla extract and cool.

Employee Health
The air hygiene foundation is a non-profit, scientific organization with headquarters and a multiple fellowship at Mellon Institute, Pittsburgh. It represents a collective effort by employers in behalf of employee health. The foundation, in addition to its fundamental research in industrial health, provides member companies with practical plant applications to prevent industrial illness and to foster industrial hygiene.

Insect Lore

Two scientists have a novel method of picking up beetles, bugs and butterflies at Waskesiu, Saskatchewan summer resort. They paint tree trunks with a mixture of beer and brown sugar. Later in the evening by flashlight they gather a rich harvest of drunken insects.

Canadian Salvage

Canadian engineers are supervising efforts to salvage the old French war vessel Marquis de Malause, sunk in the Restigouche river in 1780. If raised, it will be converted into a museum.

Wagon Train Ruts

Aerial photographers, taking pictures of Haskell county, Kansas, farm lands for mapping purposes, saw lines across dozens of negatives and thought they were scratches. Closer examination disclosed they were ruts that had been made by wagon trains 70 years before.

Kentucky Colonel

A Kentucky colonel is appointed by the governor of the state and one does not have to make application. There are no general qualifications for the office. It is purely honorary.

Creed of the Late King George V

The creed of the late King George
V of England was as follows: "1. Teach me to obey the rules of the game. 2. Teach me never to cry for the moon; never to cry over spilled milk. 3. Teach me to win if I can; if I cannot, teach me to be a good loser. 4. Teach me to distinguish between sentiment and sentimentality; to esteem the first and to despise the second. 5. Teach me never to accept and never to offer false praise. 6. Finally, if I must suffer, may it be like a thoroughbred that goes away by himself in order to suffer in silence."

Smart Hand-Crocheted Dress Good Style the Year Round

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

OH, FOR a dress that is cool to wear on hot sultry days, warm and "comfy" to wear on cool days, a dress that somehow or other possesses the magic of fitting into the scheme of things, whether it be going places about town during the active hours of the day or doing more or less of a society stunt at informal bridge party or tea in the afternoon at the club.

The answer? Well, here it is right before your very eyes in the accompanying illustration — dresses that are hand-crocheted of mercerized cotton. Yes'm, a dress like either of the models pictured will prove a friend in need and indeed at any time of the year. As to solving the mid-season problem of something to wear that tides over the gap between fashions old and fashions new, you'll find a hand-crocheted dress gives the perfect answer. Such a gown is correct and likable to wear this very minute and for the girl who will be faring to school in the early autumn days.

The best way of putting to the test all we have been saying about the crochet theme is to make such a dress for yourself. Just a few leisure moments devoted here and there, that would otherwise be wasted, to the crocheting thereof and in an unbelievably short time you will be the exultant possessor of a dress that will prove a treasure in your wardrobe, the whole year round.

Want to try it? Well, here's how! —go to your nearest fancy work shop or department. There you will find oodles of mercerized crochet cottons in adorable colors. However, that once done, together with the acquiring of exactly the right size crochet hook, not forgetting to ask for a pamphlet of instructions as how to make, which is always available where you buy yarns.

There's good news for crocheters this year in that the idea of styling is being played up for all it is worth. For the first time crochet has been treated like fabric. The result is a collection of crocheted dresses unmatched for smartness, wearability, fit and individuality.

Most important is the way in which the newer crocheted frocks fit and mold the figure. Dressmaker touches are also stressed. Padded shoulders are emphasized, zipper closings are used, skirts swing gracefully, with a view to achieving the young look so much exploited this season.

Typical of the new crochet fashions is the casual, neat-as-a-pin dress as shown to the left in the picture. A decorative zipper down the front, closing at the throat with two pompoms, high-placed pockets and a wide contrasting belt give it the dressmaker touches. Even the belt is crocheted. Worked in lustrous mercerized crochet cotton, the entire outfit is simple to make.

The hand-crocheted dress to the right has the stylish look. Its lines are fluid and soft with the shoulders slightly exaggerated to slenderize the silhouette, making it graceful for the more mature figure as well as for the slim and svelte young woman. The stitch is open and lacy —delightfully cool to wear throughout the summer. Later on you will find this type gown an ideal starter for the fall wardrobe.

Shirley Temple In Frontier Story

A thousand savage redmen sweep down on the Mounties' lonely outpost! A gallant garrison fights against overwhelming odds! A lone woman finds love amid peril on a primitive frontier!

Believe it or not—this is what happens in Shirley Temple's latest 20th Century-Fox picture, "Susannah of the Mounties," now playing at the Daly City theatre. The
